

Nominate Now To The 2016 NCHA World Championship Futurity

PRESENTED BY THE NATIONAL CUTTING HORSE ASSOCIATION

In cooperation with the City of Fort Worth, the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Worth Convention and Visitors Bureau

I. NOMINATIONS, PAYMENT SCHEDULE, LATE ENTRIES

A. NOMINATIONS

1. To be held in the fall of 2016
2. All owners and riders of nominated horses must be members in good standing of the National Cutting Horse Association.
3. For three year olds (foals of 2013), all breeds. A horse is not eligible to participate in the NCHA World Championship Futurity if its age as determined by examination of its teeth exceeds the age shown on its registration certificate on registered horses or the notarized statement of age and description required for unregistered horses, such determination by dentition examination to be made in accordance with The Official Guide for Determining the Age of the Horse as currently published by the American Association of Equine Practitioners.
4. Identification of Horses(Open and Unregistered)
 - a. A photocopy of the registration certificate (front & back) on registered horses must be provided prior to being shown. If the horse being entered is unregistered, adequate proof of ownership (unregistered horse application, bill of sale, photos front & back & both sides, and a vet statement attesting to age) must be provided to the NCHA before the horse is shown. July 1, 2016 is the deadline for papers on open entries to be submitted without penalty.
 - b. Horses entered late, after July 1st, must furnish this identification with entry.
 - c. (Open horses) If forwarded after July 1 and before September 1, a fee of $25.00 must accompany the certificate or statement.
 - d. (Open horses) If forwarded between September 1 and thirty days before the Trials, a fee of $50.00 must accompany the certificate or statement.
 - e. Failure to comply will cause all fees to be forfeited and entry to be disqualified.
5. The 2016 NCHA World Championship Futurity will be held in three divisions: Open, Non-Professional and Amateur. A horse may be entered in all divisions.
6. Riders may ride two horses of any sex in all 3 divisions. Any violation of this rule will cause the rider to be disqualified from the contest, with possible additional disciplinary action. Clarification of Rule: Open Division-Any horse(s) over the allowed two will be disqualified and the one(s) disqualified will be determined by the latter placement in the draw. Non-Pro and Amateur-If a rider shows more than the allowed two horses in any division or sub-division, all entries will be disqualified in that division or sub-division.
7. Upon being nominated, a horse cannot be shown in any event involving cattle from that time until the Futurity. Substituted horses and late entries must not have been shown after September 15, 2014. In addition, a horse cannot be worked on cattle in Will Rogers Coliseum prior to the Futurity.

2. All entry fees will include*

- a. NCHA fee
- b. Drug Testing Fee
- c. PAC fee
- d. Processing fee

 (Under Texas Election Code, Chapter 253, the Political Action Committee (PAC) fee is a voluntary contribution. Funding the PAC is important to be able to maintain state funding at the NCHA Triple Crown. Your contribution will provide critical assistance to the NCHA with this effort. To opt out of the PAC fee, submit your payment without the amount indicated as the PAC fee for your class).

3. All entry fees will be made payable to the National Cutting Horse Association in United States Funds or its equivalent and transmitted by U.S. Mail showing stamp cancellation date not later than midnight of the due date. All fees must be paid on or before dates specified (by draw date) or entry will be cancelled without refund.

4. Penalties apply after 10 day grace period on all payments. (Official postmark by US Postal Service).

6. Refunds: There will be no refunds for any reason.

C. LATE ENTRIES - OPEN AND NON-PRO

1. Late entries will be allowed by paying two times as much as is due on original entries, plus remaining fees as they come due, through July 1, 2016.
2. Late entries will be allowed after July 1, 2016 but before the draw by paying four times as much as is due on original entries, plus remaining fees as they come due.
3. Late Entries will be allowed after the draw but before the beginning of the first scheduled go-round of the respective class by paying five times the nomination fee ($15,210.00 open, $12,685.00 non-pro).
4. Late entries made after the draw will be required to work last in a herd of cattle.
5. Any payment received in the NCHA office postmarked after the date due will be subject to a penalty according to the late penalty schedule
6. Issuance of a check that is not honored for any reason or a credit card payment that is declined for any reason to cover entry fee shall constitute no payment.

II. ENTRIES—OPEN and NON-PRO

A. OPEN; Entry in the Open Futurity shall be made by horse: Owners may enter an unlimited number of horses in the Open Division.

B. Rules applicable to non-pro entries

1. A Non-Pro has two options on entering the Futurity in the Non-Pro division.

- a. You may name your horse when you send in the first payment.
- b. You may enter under your name (slot).

2. A Non-Pro may enter two horses in the Non-Pro division.

3. A Non-Professional must send in proof of ownership as required by NCHA standing rules when accompanying entry.

4. NAMING YOUR HORSE

- a. Each Non-Professional Futurity entry shall name the horse or horses to be ridden prior to the horse being shown at the Futurity.
- b. A horse must be named before it can be Double Entered or Transferred to another division. (Horses eligible to be transferred must have been named on entry form when submitted).
- c. If a Non-Professional rider doesn't name a horse or horses before the draw, the working order will be drawn in the name of the rider; if two horses are entered, they shall work in alphabetical order. A rider that names one horse will work in the first assigned draw and the other draw will be left vacant.
- d. If at the time final nomination payment is made; the horse or horses to be ridden are not named, you have the option to withhold this information until 5pm the evening before the start of the non-pro class for an additional charge of $400. Any slot/entry (rider change, horse name, fees paid or slot sale) that is not complete by 5pm the evening before start of first go-round of the non-pro class will be charged $500. Any entry not complete by the first horse crossing the time line for the start of the go-round will be disqualified from showing.

5. SELLING YOUR SLOT

- a. A Non-Professional rider's name (slot) or named entry may be sold to another Non-Professional.
- b. A non-pro may sell his/her slot or named entry after the draw but before the beginning of the first scheduled go-round of the non-pro class. The buyer will be required to submit horse registration papers or a bill of sale showing proof of ownership to the NCHA along with $400 ($200 jackpot, $200 office charge) by 5pm the evening before the go-round starts. After 5pm and prior to the start of go-round charge will be $500. ($250 jackpot, $250 office charge).

- c. When a Non-Professional or Amateur sells a slot after the draw they cannot repurchase another slot in that class, if they currently have the maximum amount of slots or entries allowed for the division. They may however buy a horse from another Non-Professional or Amateur which is entered in that class and show the purchased horse in the slot which has been assigned to that horse.

III. FUTURITY RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL ENTRIES

A. DOUBLE ENTRY PRIVILEGES-OPEN & NON-PRO ONLY

1. Any horse (not a slot) paid up to date in either division on or before the Sept. 1 payment may enter in the other division without a late penalty. If you have a non-pro slot, you must name your horse at this time.
2. No Double Entry Privileges will be granted after this date (Sept 1, 2016).
3. Once a horse has been nominated it is an entry, therefore it cannot be considered for double entry privileges. Clarification: If a horse has been entered in both the open and the non-pro divisions by making one or more payments in each division, it is considered an entry. Payments cannot be dropped in one division and later be considered for double-entry back into that division.

B. TRANSFER PRIVILEGES

1. A horse (not a slot) may be transferred to or from either division on or before Sept. 1 without penalty, and may be transferred until the final payment by payment of a $100.00 transfer fee.
2. Transfer after the final payment is due but before the draw will be required to pay $1,000 plus a $100 transfer fee.
3. Entry made in a Non-Professional rider's name (slot) may not be transferred to the Open division.
4. A horse entered in the non-pro may transfer to the Open division only if the horse is named on the first payment entry form.
5. Owners who transfer a horse from the Non-Pro to the Open are not allowed to re-purchase a Non-Pro slot at a later date for the same horse by the same owner.

C. SUBSTITUTION PRIVILEGES

1. Non-Pro Division:
 - a. The owner will be allowed to substitute another horse by paying one-half (1/2) again as much as has been paid on original entry with a maximum of $500.
 - If a non-pro names his /her horse by Sept 1st payment and Double Enters the horse in the open without penalty, that non-pro cannot at a later date substitute that horse out of the non-pro without paying a penalty equal to the entry fee ($2500).
 - b. No substitution will be allowed after the beginning of the division's first go-round.
2. Open Division:
 - a. If a veterinary certificate is received stating that a horse entered will be unable to work, the owner will be allowed to substitute another horse by paying one-half (1/2) as much as has been paid on original entry (excluding any penalty payments that have been made) until final payment is due.
 - b. Substitutions will be allowed after the final payment by paying an amount equal to the nomination fee($3,000).
 - c. No substitution will be allowed after the beginning of the division's first go-round.
 - d. Once a horse (named entry) is nominated by making one or more payments in a division, it is considered an entry. A horse that has not had all payments made may be substituted with another horse by same owner if all payments with penalties are made on original entry plus required substitution fee.
 - e. In the open, the original horse entered and placed in the draw cannot be shown in any other division for the remainder of the show.

D. CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP:

An entry may change ownership and retain eligibility under the new owner, provided the National Cutting Horse Association is so advised and the new owner keeps up all payments when due.

E. DECLINING ENTRIES:

Entries to this contest are received subject to the right of NCHA Limited Age Event Committee to refuse the entry or acceptance of a (Change of Ownership) transfer of any entry without notice to the subscriber. The decisions of the Committee shall be final in all matters.

F. CANCELLATION OF EVENT;

The National Cutting Horse Association reserves the right to cancel this event without notice at any time prior to the contest without liability to them, but in such event, return all entrance money to subscribers

G. THE DRAW

1. The draw will not take place more than twenty-one (21) days prior to the beginning of the first scheduled go-round. Only those horses (or non-professional & amateur riders) for which all payments have been received in the NCHA office will be drawn. There will be no exceptions.
2. In the event that a horse which was properly entered is left out of the draw, a redraw will not be held. In order to establish a working order for this entry, the judge will draw one number based on the original draw numbers and insert the entry in the position drawn. The entry shall work behind the number drawn.

H. THE FUTURITY TRIALS—OPEN & NON-PRO

1. The Trials shall consist of two go-rounds; conditioned, however, that at the conclusion of the first go-round the high scoring sixty percent (60%), taking a score of 181 or higher to advance, with a maximum of two hundred forty (240) horses plus ties will advance to the second Trials go-round.
2. All other horses entered will be excused (dropped) from further competition
3. In the event that there are less than one hundred (100) horses entered in a division of the Trials, there will be no semi-finals for that division.

I. THE FUTURITY—OPEN

The Top (20) horses plus ties to advance to the finals. Those advancing to the finals shall be based on the semi-finals score. The Top 15% of horses entered in the first go-round with a minimum of (45) and a maximum of (60) horses shall advance to the semi-finals based on their combined go-round score. 35% of purse to be paid in Semi Finals and 65% in the finals.

J. THE FUTURITY—NON-PRO

The Top (20) horses plus ties to advance to the finals. Those advancing to the finals shall be based on the semi-finals score. The Top 20% of horses entered in the first go-round with a minimum of (45) and a maximum of (60) horses shall advance to the semi-finals. 45% of purse to be paid in Semi Finals and 55% in the finals.

K. THE FUTURITY FINALS—OPEN & NON-PRO

1. Upon qualifying for the Futurity Finals, horses will owe no future fees to remain eligible. (Exception-Limited Open Finals Advancement fee).
2. The remaining original nomination fees and the proportionate share of the added purse will be paid in the Futurity Finals. Premium money will be paid to all finalists
3. Scores made in the Trials and Semi-finals to be disregarded completely with scores made in the Futurity Finals only to determine placing.
4. If two tie, first and second place premiums will be added together, and fifty percent equally. (There will be co-champions).
5. If more than two tie, all premiums will be split equally; the work-off will be for prizes and the title.

L. JUDGES

1. Separate judges will be used to officiate the Open and Non-Professional divisions of the NCHA World Championship Futurity.
2. NCHA Judging Rules as set forth in the Rules and Regulations Handbook will apply.
3. The NCHA Adjusted Monitor System, and all rules and policies set forth by that system, will be used.

M. OTHER

1. All rules of the National Cutting Horse Association not in direct conflict with the rules of the NCHA World Championship Futurity, as published herein, or amended in accordance with Futurity Rule number 16 shall apply.
2. These rules subject to change by action of the Executive Committee only.
3. The announcer starts the 1 - 2 1/2 minute clock as soon as the owner, rider and horse's name is called to the herd. The horse has to start the official 2 1/2 minute working time clock. If the competitor fails to enter the official time line in the time allotted, a bell will sound and an additional 1-minute clock will start to repeat the process. The first offense for missing the clock will result in a warning. The second offense and all subsequent offenses by that rider will result in another $500 fine. The 1 - 2 1/2 minute clock fines must be paid prior to entry into the next NCHA produced show.
4. By your signature on this entry form, you acknowledge that you are familiar with and subject to the provisions of the Medication and Drug Rules and Guidelines contained in the NCHA Rulebook. You also agree that, if requested, you will provide blood samples from your horse to comply with the random testing provisions contained in those Rules and Guidelines. Blood samples will be taken from the champion horses in all divisions. Random testing will also be performed throughout the show.

2016 NCHA World Championship Futurity

UNLIMITED AMATEUR CUTTING HORSE CLASS

1. The NCHA World Championship Futurity Unlimited Amateur Cutting Horse class will be based on lifetime Limited Age Non-Pro earnings (approved classes) of less than $100,000 (Limited Age Non-Pro earnings will not reset at zero for purposes of this rule), assuming Amateur criteria and eligibility requirements are met;

a. Under the age of 60, the criteria necessary for remaining in the Unlimited Amateur class is lifetime Non-Pro Limited Age Event earnings (approved classes) of less than $100,000. Beginning with the 2016 point year, an Amateur competitor who reaches $100,000 or more in lifetime Non-Pro Limited Age event earnings can continue to compete in Limited Age Non-Pro classes until the beginning of the next point year. At that point, the Amateur competitor must make a choice: to remain an Amateur and compete exclusively as an Unlimited Amateur or to compete as a Non-Pro.

b. Once an individual reaches the age of 60, if he or she qualifies under Amateur rules, they may return to the Unlimited Amateur class (LAE Events Only), regardless of Limited Age Non-Pro class money won. The member will be allowed to show in both LAE Non-Pro and LAE Unlimited Amateur competition.

2. 2016 NCHA World Championship Futurity Unlimited Amateur Cutting Horse contest will consist of one go-round. A Semi-Finals will be held if there are 100 or more entries at the time the last payment is due. Fifty percent (50%) plus ties will advance to the semi-finals based on go-round score.
